

LorRal Services, Inc.

Antioch, Illinois

LorRal services was owned by Loraine and Ralph Fergeson. The company examined tenants of shopping centers and franchisees for compliance to lease and franchise agreements. Typically, leases and tenants have liabilities based on sales generated.

Company auditors were responsible for conducting an examination of books and source data to determine the accuracy of data provided by the company being examined. The examination also focused on educating the tenants or franchisees on the requirements of the contract provisions.